

Al Adinolfi

Biography

On November 2nd, 2004, Al Adinolfi was re-elected to a third term representing the people of Connecticut's 103rd Assembly District, which includes portions of the towns of Cheshire, Wallingford and Hamden. Adinolfi had served as state representative for this district previously from 1999-2001, and 2003-2005. Prior to his service in the Connecticut House of Representatives, Al Adinolfi served four terms on the Cheshire Town Council.

A US Air Force Veteran of the Korean War era, Al Adinolfi has worked hard as an advocate for veterans' and seniors' issues. He is a member of the American Legion, and the former chairman of the Medal of Honor Living Classroom, which aims to teach young people about the legacy of Congressional Medal of Honor recipients.

Adinolfi is a member of the Ancient and Accepted Free Masons, Temple Lodge #16, and is a Past Master of his lodge. He is also involved with the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, and the Sphinx Shriners.

Al is a retired manager at DNE Technologies, a Wallingford based corporation, where he worked for 32 years.

A dedicated member of the Cheshire Republican Town Committee for over 22 years, Al Adinolfi resides in Cheshire with his Wife Lillian. They have two daughters and six grandchildren and one great grandchild.